Mental Stress

There is frequent noticeable pressure from simultaneous priorities. Unpleasant contacts or concerns over unpleasant situations are frequent. Moderate disruption of family/social life. This position exposes the incumbent to vicarious trauma that results from empathetic engagement with recently traumatized clients.

Working Conditions

Flexible shifts/hours Monday-Sunday including, but not limited to, statutory holidays with evening, weekend, and on-call shifts related to client and organizational needs for crisis support. The hours of work including days off and work area may be subject to change consistent with operational requirements.

Physical Effort

Most of the time is spent sitting or standing in the same location with liberal opportunity to move about. On-scene response to victims may involve standing or sitting for long periods of time. Occasionally required to stoop or lift light articles up to 10 lbs. in weight.

To apply for this position:

- Send your resume and cover letter in one document to Kristen Carter, Executive Director, at ed@victimservices.on.ca
- Deadline by August 13, 2021, 5:00 pm or until a successful candidate has been found
- Please note the selection process may include assessments and/or testing in addition to interviews, references, and security clearance requirement.
- We thank you for your interest but only candidates being offered an interview will be contacted. No phone calls please.

We encourage applications from individuals who reflect the diversity of the community we service including, but not limited to: survivors of crime or tragic circumstance, people of colour, aboriginal people, LGBT2Q+ individuals, people with disabilities, and people who represent the range of socio-economic realities in our community.
